

NOTES ON THE SENATE

SENATE
OF THE REPUBLIC OF POLAND

This FURTHER SERIES of articles of this cycle contains basic information on how the Senate functions, and on the history and present day of the Polish two-chamber parliament.

“NOTES ON THE SENATE” are published in two languages – Polish and English. If, after reading the “Notes”, you would like to:

- obtain more information on how the Senate works,
 - visit the buildings of the parliament,
 - ask any questions,
 - express an opinion or make a comment,
- please contact us at the following address:

Teachers and school students are particularly welcome. We have prepared special booklets on the buildings of the parliament and its everyday work. They are available at the Analysis, Documentation and Correspondence Office. Blind and visually impaired visitors are welcome, too. We have prepared models of the parliament buildings specifically designed for their use.
